

INTRODUCTION

Islam is the fastest-growing major religion. According to Pew Research Centre, there were an estimation of 1.8 billion Muslim population in 2015 and that figure has grown to 1.91 billion as recorded by the World Population Review website as of January 2021. Although being the second largest religion in the world today, Islam still faces misunderstandings and prejudices which results to incidents of Islamophobias and hatred towards Muslims. It is crucial for Muslims to continue to combat these negative perceptions by spreading the message of Islam as a religion of peace that provides the best solutions to the problems faced by the world today. The rich heritage of Islamic civilizations can be the ultimate point of reference to further promote what Islam is able to offer. This webinar is organized to discuss the role of Islam in the world today and what Islam has to offer to the problems faced by mankind.

OBJECTIVES

- ◆ To understand the influence of Islam in human advancements and achievements in the early Islamic civilizations.
 - ◆ To discuss how Islam provides the best solution for the predicaments faced by the world today.
 - ◆ As appreciation and acknowledgement on the contributions of early Muslim scholars to science and knowledge and their influence on the modern world today.
- 